Introduction

The Anti-Ragging Committee of Dr. S.S. Tantia Medical College, Hospital & Research Centre organized the programme for MBBS batch 2024-25 to raise awareness about the harmful effects of ragging, explain prevention and reporting mechanisms, and encourage a safe, respectful and inclusive learning environment. IPS officer Mr. Nitin Choudhary was present as Chief Guest. In addition Vice Chancellor of Tantia University Dr. M.M. Saxena, Dean of the Medical College Dr. Vijay Sahgal, M.S. Dr. H.S. Bindra, faculty members and medical students were present at the Anti-ragging Sensitization Programme.

THE HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PROGRAMME WERE AS FOLLOWS:

- Saraswati Vandana and Inaugural Ceremony

  The event began with Saraswati Vandana, invoking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati as a symbol of knowledge, wisdom and learning. The opening established a respectful atmosphere and emphasized the importance of ethical conduct and harmony within the medical college.

- Welcome Address by the Member Secretary Dr. Sagnik Roy

  The Member Secretary welcomed the invited guest, institutional authorities, faculty and students, and introduced the purpose of the programme. The address stressed that ragging undermines students' dignity, confidence and sense of safety, and that positive senior–junior relationships should be founded on cooperation and mutual respect.

- Honouring of the guests

  Chief Guest Mr. Nitin Choudhary was formally felicitated by Dr. Vijay Kumar Sahgal, Dean of Dr. S. S. Tantia Medical College with a beautiful bouquet and a memento as a token of Honour. Dr. M.M. Saxena V.C. of Tantia University was honored by Dr. Sagnik Roy member secretary of the Anti-Ragging Committee with a bouquet and memento.

- Address by the Dean

  The Dean’s address formed part of the inaugural session and focused on discipline, professionalism and ethical behaviour in medical education. The programme reinforced the responsibility of future healthcare professionals to show empathy, integrity and respect to colleagues and juniors.

- Address by the Vice Chancellor

  Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of Tantia University, Dr. M. M. Saxena, addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of maintaining a ragging-free campus. He encouraged students to uphold discipline, mutual respect, and ethical values. He also highlighted the responsibility of every student in creating a safe, friendly, and supportive learning environment.

- Special Address by Mr. Nitin Chaudhary, IPS

  Mr. Nitin Chaudhary, IPS, attended as an invited Chief Guest and delivered a special address. His presence brought a law-enforcement perspective to the sensitization initiative and underscored the seriousness of student safety, harassment prevention and responsible conduct. Mr. Nitin Choudhary connected with the students through his speech and shared his personal experiences making the session engaging and inspiring.

- Address by the Medical Superintendent

  The Medical Superintendent addressed the gathering on the importance of discipline, teamwork and professional responsibility. The session linked a respectful academic culture with safe conduct in classrooms, laboratories, hostels, hospitals and other college spaces.

- Anti-Ragging Awareness Skit by Students

  Students of batch 2024 & 2025 presented an awareness skit depicting the impact of intimidation, humiliation and harassment on student well-being. The performance conveyed that friendly introductions and supportive mentoring are constructive, whereas coercion and ridicule are unacceptable.

- Group Photography & Tea Break

  A group photography secssion was included in the inaugural proceedings with dignitaries, institutional representatives, faculty and students, documenting the shared commitment to a ragging-free campus. This was followed by Tea break.

- Lecture by Dr. Suchira — 10:30–11:00 AM

  Topic: Understanding Ragging — Definitions, Forms, Myths and Realities. The educational session addressed the meaning and forms of ragging, including physical, verbal and psychological harassment. It challenged the misconception that ragging is a harmless college tradition and highlighted the importance of personal boundaries and respectful interaction.

- Lecture by Dr. Sahil — 11:00–11:30 AM
  Topic: UGC Regulations, Legal Provisions, Institutional Policies and Consequences of Ragging. The session covered the regulatory and institutional framework for ragging prevention, potential disciplinary and legal consequences, complaint mechanisms and the responsibility to report incidents through appropriate channels.

- Debate Competition — 11:30 AM–12:30 PM
  Topic: "Introduction of Junior Students by Seniors is Ragging in Disguise." Four students spoke for the motion and Five students spoke against it. The debate encouraged students to examine the difference between voluntary, friendly interaction and conduct involving pressure, humiliation or intimidation. It promoted critical thinking, public speaking and awareness of consent and dignity. The event was judged by senior faculty members.

- Scheduled Lunch Break — 12:30–2:00 PM
  The morning educational and interactive sessions were followed by a scheduled Lunch break for all the committee members senior faculty members and Judges.

- Poster-Making Competition — 2:00–2:30 PM
  Theme: “Say No to Ragging: Build Bonds, Not Barriers.” Students used posters and visual messages to communicate the importance of dignity, friendship, unity and a supportive educational environment. The activity promoted creative engagement with the anti-ragging message. Individual posters were assessed by faculty judges to determine the winners.

- Logo-Making Competition — 2:30–3:00 PM
  Theme: “Design a Symbol for a Ragging-Free Medical Campus.” The competition encouraged students to represent safety, equality, unity and mutual respect through original visual symbols, strengthening student ownership of the awareness campaign.

- Prize and Certificate Distribution — 3:00–3:45 PM
  The programme included a prize and certificate distribution ceremony to recognize winners in the debate, poster-making and logo-making competitions. Winners (first and second place) were awarded prizes and certificates. In addition, all participants were awarded participation certificates.

- Vote of Thanks — 3:45–4:00 PM
  The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks acknowledging the invited dignitary Mr. Nitin Chaudhary, IPS, the Dean, Medical Superintendent, Member Secretary, Anti-Ragging Committee, speakers Dr. Suchira and Dr. Sahil, organizing faculty and participating students. The concluding message reiterated the collective responsibility to maintain a safe, respectful and ragging-free campus.
